| YOUR DREAM |

A Palace Wedding

| OUR PLACE |

The Dance Palace
Community Center

Thank you for your interest in the Dance Palace as the location for your wedding and reception. Community spaces are sacred places.

They give us inspiration, lift our spirits, and provide an ideal setting for us to stand and say vows – to unite with another person.

Buildings

Built with local old-growth redwood and fir, the Church, circa 1920, is a lovely example of Arts and Crafts style architecture with simple and understated rustic detailing and period light fixtures. This same elegant style informed the design of the newer adjoining buildings, including the Carol J. Friedman Hall, which has professional sound and lighting equipment, an open-beamed events space with gleaming hardwood floors, and white walls with floor-to-ceiling windows that showcase views of the lawn and gardens.

Capacity:

Seated in Chairs	Seated at Tables	Standing
Church: 100	Church: 75	Church: 125
Friedman Hall: 200	Friedman Hall: 120	Friedman Hall: 300
Lawn & Garden: 150	Lawn & Garden: 75	Lawn & Garden: 250

Gardens

West Marin’s moderate climate makes it possible to have an outdoor wedding almost any time of the year. Although there’s a canopy of cypress trees surrounding the Giacomini Wetlands, you can still catch an incredible view from the lawn and garden space, which was designed to be in harmony with the Arts & Crafts inspired buildings and natural surroundings. The plants are mostly natives with subdued colors, native trees and indigenous stones.

Fees & Deposits

The Dance Palace

Founded in 1971 the Dance Palace has grown from a small dance studio into a multi-complex community and performing arts center located in the village of Point Reyes Station, on the western edge of Marin County. The Dance Palace facilities include a one-room vintage church space, a “state of the art” performance hall, and lawn and garden area.
